

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BEND, OR – Domaine Serene Wine Lounge Bend is excited to announce a new collaboration with Sixtop Restaurant Group, a renowned culinary enterprise based in Bend, Oregon known for their collection of Bend’s favorite restaurants, including Nome Italiano and the renowned Bos Taurus. Sixtop Restaurant Group’s signature culinary techniques set the perfect stage for the wines of Oregon’s Domaine Serene and the Burgundian wines of Château de la Créé and Maison Evenstad. Together, this collaboration will offer a one-of-a-kind experience of world-class wines paired with world-class foods in the historic downtown Spheir Building.

Starting on August 5th, 2023, Domaine Serene Wine Lounge Bend guests can enjoy a unique menu featuring dishes created by Sixtop Restaurant Group’s distinguished Executive Chef, George Morris. The menu will showcase wine-inspired cuisine with a French bistro flair while incorporating Pacific Northwest ingredients and influences. A selection of beers and a refined cocktail menu will accompany a comprehensive wine list available by the glass, tasting flight, and bottle.

“Creating a menu inspired by fine wine is a creative and immersive experience incorporating the full palate. It takes the culinary experience to a different level, and I’m really excited about the dishes we’ve curated. This partnership will offer so many unique opportunities to play with the French and local Oregon influences,” said George Morris, Executive Chef of Sixtop Restaurant Group. “I’m excited to continue raising the bar for Bend and give them a world-class experience that will keep people talking long after they leave.”

“We are thrilled to partner with Sixtop Restaurant Group and bring their exceptional cuisine to our guests,” said Liz Lease-McCaffrey, Chief Marketing Officer of Domaine Serene. “This collaboration is a celebration of our shared passion for excellence in wine, food, and hospitality, and we can’t wait for our customers to experience the exciting new menu.”

2022 winner of the Building a Better Central Oregon (BBCO) Awards, Domaine Serene Wine Lounge Bend offers an unforgettable experience as Bend’s most unique location with incomparable food and ambiance – not to mention some of the world’s finest wines. The expansive three-level space located in the heart of downtown Bend features rustic accents in an elegant atmosphere. The turn-of-the-century Wine Cellar features two event spaces available for private bookings. The Members’ Mezzanine exhibits beautifully designed wine lockers for collectors and connoisseurs seeking to store their prized Domaine Serene, Château de la Créé, and Maison Evenstad wines.
